It's time to keep your shift in the Armstrong cafeteria for 2026-27, or let us know if you need a change. Please respond before the end of the Easter break or risk your shift being given to someone else.

FREE ICE CREAM: Once again the first 5 people to contact Jimmy about next year after the Armstrong Article goes out will receive FREE ICE CREAM.

Jimmy is looking for an answer from each of you:

1. Keep: your day of the month 😊
2. Change: a different day of the month 🤔
3. Flown: your Eagle is leaving the nest 😭

We need your help!

The Spirit Shop needs your help! We currently don't have volunteers signed up for the rest of the year, (Mondays and Wednesdays) and the kids absolutely love when the store is open. The shift is just 7:30–8:00 AM, and it's a fun and easy way to get involved. Even better, it's a great activity to do with your child—they'll love helping out and seeing their friends before school. If you have a morning to spare, we'd be so grateful for your help!

Our practical talk series equips parent educators, and ministers to navigate life challenges with resilience and purpose drawing on mental health insights, faith and effective communication to inspire lasting transformation.

Youth & Difficult Thoughts: Suicide Prevention, Response, and Postvention | Tuesday, February 10, 6:30
Nathaniel R. Strenger, Psy.D., Licensed Psychologist

Talk of teen suicide is terrifying. But, few things are more protective than an informed and collaborating community. In this Inform talk, we will equip parents, ministers, educators, and caregivers to take on an uncomfortable subject with confidence. We'll discuss preventative communication and the role of faith and community in well-being. We'll present difficult conversations about risk factors and help-seeking. These are the foundations of community suicide prevention, response, and postvention.

Empty Nest: Prepare for Launch | Tuesday, April 14, 6:30-8:00 pm

Carrie Davidson Psy.D., Licensed Psychologist and Clint Donaldson, LPC-S

As we prepare for an empty nest and the launch of kids, how can we have a sustainable relationship with our young adult/college child. When do we step in and when do we step back? How can we encourage our kids to apply faith values independently of us and be resilient, confident, and self-sufficient.

The Mental Load for Moms | Tuesday, September 1, 6:30-8:00 pm

Katie Campbell, LCSW and Lindsey Parker, LPC

The "mental load" or the invisible, constant, and often exhausting cognitive and emotional labor many moms carry—planning, remembering, organizing, anticipating needs, managing schedules, and keeping the household and family running—is a burdensome weight on Moms. We will help shine a light on the unseen work mothers do, how it impacts mental health, and what healthier balance can look like. Moms will leave with practical resources how every aspect of their lives—relationships, faith, physical well-being, emotional lives—can sync together for contentment and resilient life.

Holding On and Letting Go: Managing Holiday Grief After Loss | Tuesday, November 3, 6:30-8:00 pm

Sandy Robinson, LPC-S

The holiday season can amplify feelings of grief, especially for empty nesters coping with the loss of parents or adjusting to new family dynamics. This discussion offers a compassionate space to explore how grief intersects with tradition, faith-life, expectations, and emotional well-being during the holidays. Participants will learn practical strategies for honoring memories, managing loneliness, and finding meaning in this season of change.

REGISTRATION

There is no fee to attend, but we ask that you RSVP so we can prepare seating and send you a reminder before the event. To register, go to TheCenterCounseling.org/Inform or scan QR.

Talks are on Tuesdays from 6:30-8:00 pm at our Central Office location at 4305 MacArthur Ave, Dallas, Texas 75209.
